DELIVER (2004 - 2006)

Development of Labour Markets: Innovation, Vocational Training, Employability and Renewal

The DELIVER project aimed to:

- Understand and describe the dynamics that work in the restructured economy
- Stimulate vocational, professional and geographical mobility in the participating regions
- Improve equal opportunities and reduce gender desegregation
- Reduce the lack of competence in the restructured labour market
- Reduce the number of unemployed and individuals disaffected from the labour market.
